FOREWORD

This Municipal Handbook is compiled annually under the direction of the City Council, to furnish the citizens of Toronto, and others, with official information relative to the administration of the City. It is presented in the hope that its perusal may stimulate and encourage the citizens generally to take a greater interest in the communal life of their City and in good municipal government, which, in the last analysis, is the basis of sound democratic government.

Toronto — Incorporated as a City 1834.

The Government of the Province of Upper Canada passed an act on March 6, 1834 to extend the limits of the Town of York and to incorporate the said Town into a City under the name of the City of Toronto.

The preamble of the Bill declared:

"WHEREAS From the rapid increase of the population, commerce and wealth of the town of York a more efficient system of police and

municipal government than that now established has become obviously necessary; and

"WHEREAS None appears so likely to attain effectually the objects desired as the erection thereof into a City, and the incorporation of the inhabitants, and vesting in them the power to elect a Mayor, Aldermen and common Councilmen and other officers for the management of the affairs of the said City and the levying of such moderate taxes as may be necessary for improvements and other public purposes; and

"WHEREAS The name of York is common to so many towns and places that it is desirable for avoiding inconvenience and confusion to designate the capital of the Province by a name which will better distinguish it, and none appears more eligible than that by which the site of the present town was known before the name of York was assigned to it;

"Therefore his Majesty, by and with the advice, etc., etc."

The first Municipal election in the City of Toronto was held March 27, 1834. All male householders had the franchise whether owners or tenants. The City was divided into five wards and in each, two aldermen and two Councilmen were elected.

William Lyon MacKenzie was elected first mayor of the City of Toronto.

The Town of York erected a new Market-building in the year 1831. Part of this building was fitted up as a City Hall. Here the first city council meeting of the newly created City of Toronto was held.

The site of the present City Hall, situated on Queen Street between James and Bay streets was intended originally for Court House purposes only, but it was decided subsequently to erect a combined City Hall and Court House thereon.

The cornerstone of the present City Hall was laid November 21, 1891, and the building was opened for public business on September 18, 1899. The total cost (including site, clock, bells and furniture) did not exceed $2,500,000.

MUNICIPAL GOVERNMENT AND ELECTIONS

The Government of the City of Toronto is vested in a Municipal Council under the provisions of the Municipal Act passed by the Government of the Province of Ontario.

The Council is composed of the Mayor and four members of the Board of Control who are elected annually by the voters at large and eighteen Aldermen elected annually from the nine wards into which the City is divided, two from each ward, making a total membership of 23.

The meeting of the Electors for the nomination of candidates for Mayor, Controllers, Aldermen and the Board of Education shall be held on the 21st day of December, except where that day falls on Saturday or Sunday, in which case nominations are held on the preceding Friday; and the Elections shall be held on the 1st day of January next thereafter, except where that day falls on Sunday in which case the Elections shall be held on the following day. Nominations for Mayor and Controllers must be made from 10 o'clock a.m. and not later than 11 o'clock a.m. at the City Hall with the City Clerk (Returning Officer) presiding; nominations for Aldermen and Board of Education must be made from 12 noon and not later than 1 o'clock p.m. A Returning Officer, representing the City Clerk, presides at a school building located in each ward.

The Council as a whole is a legislative body of the Municipality and carries on its work through the Board of Control and the following Standing Committees, viz.: Committee on Works, Committee on Property, Committee on Parks and Exhibitions, Committee on Legislation and the Committee on Public Welfare.

The Board of Control is the executive body of Council and as such is responsible for the preparation of the annual Estimates; the regulation and supervision of all matters relating to finances and expenditures, revenue and investments; the supervision and control of all books, documents, vouchers and securities belonging to the Corporation; the renting or leasing of any property belonging to the Corporation (except lands upon the Island); the preparation of specifications, calling for tenders and the awarding of all contracts for works, materials and supplies required by the Corporation; the nomination to Council of Heads of Departments and sub-Departments in case of a vacancy; the carrying on of public works authorized by Council and the general administration of the affairs of the City, except as to the Department of Education and Police, the former being under the control of the Board of Education elected by the voters annually (similar to Council, two members elected from each of the nine wards in the City) and the latter under a Board of Commissioners of Police.

The Council, without a two-thirds vote, cannot reverse or vary the action of the Board of Control in respect to tenders, when the effect of such vote would be to increase the cost of the work or to award the contract to a tenderer other than the one to whom the Board has awarded it. The Municipal Act also provides that the Council shall not appropriate or expend any sum not provided for in the Estimates or a supplementary Estimate approved and certified by the Board of Control without a two-thirds vote of Council. The Board of Control is vested with power to dismiss or suspend any Head of Department and forthwith report same to Council and such official cannot be re-appointed or re-instated by Council without a two-thirds vote. The Heads of Departments, under the provision of a by-law have full power to dismiss, suspend or demote any subordinate officer, clerk or employee.

All reports of Committees are first submitted to the Board of Control and then transmitted by that body to the City Council with such amendments as the Board may deem advisable.

The Local Board of Health is a statutory body and not a Committee of Council. It derives its authority under the provisions of the Public Health Act. In Cities it is composed of the Mayor, the Medical Officer of Health and three resident ratepayers. In Toronto it is the practice to appoint in the latter capacity three elected representatives, namely, Aldermen. The function of this Board is to give direction to the enforcement of the provisions of the Public Health Act and regulations.

DEPARTMENT OF STREET CLEANING

Administrative Office—Ground Floor, west corridor, City Registry Office Building, 90 Albert Street. Telephone Elgin 8369.

The Department of Street Cleaning was organized on December 17th, 1888, for the purpose of developing a system for the regular collection and disposal of ashes and household waste material, and the cleaning of public streets.

The services performed by the Department embrace the cleaning of public thoroughfares, the collection and disposal of ashes and household waste material, the cleaning of catch basins, the oiling of unimproved roadways, the removal of snow and the placement of abrasives on icy roadways.

For collection purposes the area of the city is divided into 23 districts, which are again sub-divided into 3 sections, thus permitting a twice-weekly collection to all parts of the city.

223 vehicles are engaged regularly in the collection services, and during 1942 292,931 tons of ashes and 135,435 tons of garbage were collected. There was an average of 3.24 tons of refuse removed from each dwelling.

All garbage and combustible waste material is disposed of by incineration at three high-temperature garbage disposal plants. The first incinerator was erected in 1917 on the Don Roadway, at Dundas Street. This plant has a capacity of 300 tons per day. In 1923 the second plant was constructed on Wellington Street, near Niagara Street. The capacity of this plant is 400 tons per day. The above plants are manually operated, that is, the material is received on the charging floor then drawn into the furnaces by hand labour. The Symes Road Incinerator, which was placed in operation in 1934, is the crane-operated type, that is, the material is dumped into a receiving pit, then lifted by two clam-bucket cranes which discharge the garbage directly into the furnaces.

There are 576 miles of streets, 546 of which are paved and receive regular street cleaning services. During the summer season of 1942, 128,284 cubic yards of litter were removed from the streets, while 8,457 cubic yards of cleanings were removed from the catch basins located on these thoroughfares. Six motor flushers are used nightly in the downtown area and on main thoroughfares, to augment the regular street cleaning service.

The winter services provide for the plowing and the removal of snow from arterial highways.

For this purpose, the following equipment is used:

25 Snow Blade Attachments for motor trucks.

3 Tractor Plows.

3 Snow Blowers and Loaders.

1 Snow Loader.

12 Mechanical Spreaders.

HEALTH STATISTICS

The City of Toronto for many years past has maintained a well balanced and highly successful programme of general health services. Among other activities, the close supervision of water, milk and food supplies generally, a sustained diphtheria immunization, active measures in

Department of Public Health—continued tuberculosis and venereal diseases control, industrial hygiene and general environmental sanitation, have all made their respective contribution to the reduction of the number of maladies formerly responsible for a large annual death toll.

Expenditures on health conservation are reflected in the marked prolongation of life for many more of our citizens than formerly, as indicated by the fact that the prevailing average rate at death is now 59.8 years, representing an increase of approximately 20 years over the past quarter century. Less than 25 per cent. of all recorded mortality now occurs among persons under 50 years of age, whereas in 1910, for instance, the proportion was 65 per cent. or better. Today two-thirds of the City's mortality is attributed to cardio-vascular-renal conditions, together with cancer and diabetes which are the least controllable conditions associated with advanced age.

Some of the more important statistical data pertaining to the City's health during 1942 disclose a further decline in infant mortality to a new minimum for the sixth successive year. In this relatively short space of time we have experienced a reduction in the rate from 56 to 37 deaths per 1000 living births. The significance of this is more clearly conveyed by saying that had the rate of just six years ago prevailed in 1942 the loss of infants up to one year of age would have been 784 instead of the 523 deaths which actually were recorded, a saving of 261 young lives.

Prior to 1940 the City's maternal death rate ranged from 5.1 to 8.3. Despite a sharp increase in the number of confinements, puerperal mortality during the past three years has remained almost stationary at a ratio of 3 deaths per 1000 living births.

No marked rise in mortality from tuberculosis is to be noted as a result of occupational environment under present wartime industrial conditions. For 1942 the death rate was 31.8 per 100,000 population, an appreciable improvement over the rate of 33.1 in 1941 but somewhat —though not significantly—in advance of the excellent ratios established in 1939 and 1940.

The 1942 experience as it relates to the more common communicable diseases was an exceptionally favourable one, with a substantially reduced volume of cases and fatalities. The combined incidence of the major infections dropped from 10,352 cases and 32 deaths in 1941 to a figure of 3,755 cases and but 20 deaths in 1942.

The City's diphtheria record of 20 cases and 2 deaths in 1941, with a further rise to 58 cases and 7 deaths in 1942, was a disappointing feature, particularly as it followed a sixteen-month period ending December, 1940, which was entirely free of the disease.

A record of only 11 cases of typhoid fever; the diminution in meningococcic meningitis from 105 to 66 cases with 7 fewer deaths and a 50 per cent. improvement in poliomyelitis were other noteworthy betterments in the health chart for 1942.

Toronto's birth rate for 1942 returned approximately to the values of eleven or twelve years ago, with 14,058 new arrivals, 9,772 of these being of resident and 4,286 of non-resident parentage. A 35 per cent. increase in the birth rate since 1937 is to be noted.

This necessarily brief statistical résumé points to a continuing measure of success attendant upon the City's efforts to conserve and, if possible, to improve the state of health of its inhabitants in the promotion and support of which due appreciation is accorded to the private physicians, hospital administrations, health and welfare organizations and not least to the citizenry at large for the manner in which all, in their respective spheres, have worked in harmony for the common good.

CIVIC AMBULANCES

Telephones, Adelaide 6465-6466

The Civic Ambulance Service, under the control of the Department of Public Health, is located at the Coroners' Building, 86 Lombard Street.

A limited service is provided, restricted in scope to answering calls of an emergent nature such as street accidents and similar happenings; the transportation of non-emergent cases to a public hospital when the hospital maintenance of such person is to be at public expense, i.e., a City Order case, and the transportation of all cases of communicable disease. Separate ambulances and staffs are provided for the respective services mentioned.

All calls of whatever nature should be directed to the Coroners' Building, telephone, Adelaide 6465, where the attendant on duty will allocate the call if it is within the above categories, or otherwise advise the enquirer if service cannot be given.

In case of accident, the patient, if of adult age and conscious, has the right to select the hospital or other destination within the City to which it is desired to be taken. In the case of children or those in an unconscious condition, a physician, if one is in attendance at the scene of accident, will undertake direction of the ambulance. In the absence of a physician, this duty then develops on any police officer present, and failing either of these authorities the ambulance crew will then take responsibility for removal of the injured person.

In cases where a person is found dead and a physician has not been in immediate attendance, the Chief Coroner's office, 86 Lombard Street—telephone, Adelaide 6466—should be called without delay.

TORONTO MUNICIPAL ABATTOIR

This service was inaugurated August 4th, 1914, as a public slaughtering establishment with cold storage (high and low temperature) accommodation. It is essentially to the greatest extent a public health institution, and while the fact of its existence may perhaps at times have had a tendency to regulate the price of meats, the purpose of its establishment was to concentrate the slaughtering of food animals within the City, so that the evils attendant upon the operation of small slaughter houses might be eliminated.

LOCAL IMPROVEMENT WORKS

When the owners of property on any street or lane desire a pavement, sidewalk, curbing, grading, sewer or water main, or when the property owners in any locality desire the opening, widening, extension or diversion of a street or lane, application should be made to the Department of Works for a form of petition to the Council for the work or improvement. The petition issued by the Department contains an estimate of the cost of the work and the estimated rate of assessment per foot frontage. When the petition has been signed by two-thirds in number of the owners representing at least one-half in value of the lots liable to be specially assessed, the Council, with the approval of the Ontario Municipal Board, may proceed with the work and subsequently assess the cost against the lots abutting directly on the work.

If it is found, when the petition is presented, that the names of two-thirds in number of the property owners representing at least one-half in value of the property have not been obtained, and if the Council nevertheless determines, on the recommendation of the Commissioner of Works, that the work is necessary and in the public interest, it may direct, with the approval of the Ontario Municipal Board, that the work be proceeded with unless a majority of the interested property owners, representing at least one-half in value of the property to be assessed, petition against it within one month after the Council has given notice of its intention to proceed therewith. The foregoing procedure, which is called the "initiative" procedure, may also be followed on the recommendation of the Commissioner of Works, or on the joint recommendation of the Commissioner of Works and Assessment Commissioner, in the case of certain works, when there has been no petition for the improvement.

Under authority of section 8 of the Local Improvement Act, the Council, if it deems a work necessary in the public interest, may proceed therewith, with the approval of the Ontario Municipal Board, notwithstanding any petition to the Council opposed thereto. The vote of the Council to proceed with the work must be a two-thirds vote of the whole Council.

Where the work is a trunk sewer, trunk water main, or the opening, widening, extending, diverting or grading of a street, the Council may by a three-fourths vote of the whole Council assume part of the cost and assess part of the cost against abutting lands and also lands benefited by the work.

CANADIAN NATIONAL EXHIBITION

CLOSING OF CANADIAN NATIONAL EXHIBITION FOR THE DURATION OF THE WAR

Pursuant to a request received from a representative of the Department of National Defence, Ottawa, for the continued operation and use of various buildings at the Exhibition Grounds for Military purposes and for the reason that the holding of the Exhibition as usual would seriously interfere with war activities at this location, and it being absolutely essential that the Active Forces remain in possession of the buildings, the Board of Directors of the Canadian National Exhibition Association decided to accede to the desires of the Dominion Government, and postpone the Annual Exhibition until after the war.

The show of 1941, the third held under war conditions since aggressor nations launched their attack on the world was in many respects the best ever conducted by the Association. A new attendance record of 267,000 for one day was set on Labour Day. The ready adaptability of the Exhibition to war-time needs was demonstrated and in a variety of ways it contributed handsomely to the war effort. The national morale was improved, business was stimulated and Canada showed the world she is looking to a quick resumption of the arts of peace when victory shall have been achieved.

Out of war was born the precursor of the Canadian National Exhibition in 1792 when the Niagara Agricultural Society was formed in the then wilderness near Newark, now Niagara-on-the-Lake. Its organizers were composed largely of United Empire Loyalists who had come to this country after the American Revolutionary War. With the primitive means at hand with which to develop the agricultural resources of the fertile Niagara Peninsula they laid the foundations of what was to become the world's greatest annual exposition. Governor John Graves Simcoe, first governor of Upper Canada, was keenly interested in the society subscribing liberally to the prize money and offering encouragement in many ways.

There were many obstacles to be overcome in those early days but the determination so characteristic of the settlers resulted in the survival of the Fair. In 1801 the "society instituted in London, Canada, for the encouragement of agriculture, industry and the arts" offered premiums for various branches of the struggling Fair's activities. Eventually came the war of 1812 to bring about a setback but the association was kept alive. In 1820 a cattle show was held at York, now Toronto. Government recognition was gained in 1830 when a grant of $400 was made to agricultural societies. This led to the formation of a provincial agricultural society in 1846. This society held a show each year at different points throughout the growing province. This procedure was adhered to until 1878 when it was decided that an itinerant fair was not in the best interests of the whole community and when the municipality of Toronto undertook to sponsor the erection of large permanent structures for exhibition purposes the show became a Toronto fixture and was held annually as the Toronto Industrial Exhibition. The latter became separated from and independent of the provincial society. In 1912 the name was changed to the Canadian National Exhibition and the show became truly national in scope. Since that time it has expanded steadily until its activities, in peace times, embrace the foremost countries of the world.

The Board of Directors consists of the Mayor of the City of Toronto and seven members of the City Council together with eight representatives of manufacturing interests and eight representatives of agriculture. These are elected from the membership which comprises one hundred and fifty organizations of various kinds.

GROUNDS AND BUILDINGS

Exhibition Park is an exquisitely landscaped property of 350 acres extending for a distance of a mile and a half along the shore of Lake Ontario and well within the city limits. A protected regatta course extends the full length of the park.

Beautiful shade trees, paved boulevards, immaculate beds of flowers and foliage in artistic design, wide sweeping lawns and stately buildings of stone, steel, brick and concrete, gems of exposition architecture combine to make a most attractive picture with the blue waters of the lake as background. Many of these great display structures cost in excess of a million dollars each.

At the outbreak of war, which occurred during the Canadian National Exhibition of 1939, the complete plant and equipment was offered to the government for use by the Department of National Defence. Not all of the buildings were required by the armed forces but several of them were occupied by troops in the fall, winter and spring months. Part of the vast Coliseum was established as a manning depot for the Royal Canadian Air Force. Detachments of the Navy are quartered in the mammoth Automotive Building and the army given most suitable accommodation in other fine buildings.

The desirability of this arrangement was quickly demonstrated and it was carried on in the winter of 1940-41 and 1941-42. The Department of national Defence has given the Canadian National Exhibition its hearty co-operation in preserving the continuity of the show. It was agreed that the Exhibition had made a desirable contribution to the national morale, stimulated recruiting, assisted in raising more than $100,000 for various defence causes such as the Red Cross, Britain War Relief and organizations devoted to supplying comforts for the men of the services. The courage, optimism and faith of the management was fully justified by the results. The important part the Canadian National Exhibition plays in Canada's defence effort was proved conclusively. Thus is the "Show Window of the Nations" fulfilling its destiny not only as the world's largest annual exposition but as an inspiration to the people of Canada, the British Empire and ultimately the world.

ROYAL AGRICULTURAL WINTER FAIR ASSOCIATION OF CANADA

The Royal Agricultural Winter Fair Association of Canada is a voluntary body, organized in 1919, for the purpose of promoting the higher branches of Agriculture in the Dominion, notably live stock, through the competitive stimulus of an annual exhibition of farm products. Its annual Fair occupies an enviable position among agricultural exhibitions on the American Continent, and in its combined wide scope, representative inclusiveness, variety of exhibits, and high standards is undoubtedly unique in any country.

Included in the membership of the Association are representatives of all existing live stock and other agricultural organizations in Canada, as well as of the Dominion and Provincial Governments and the City of Toronto.

At the outbreak of War in September, 1939, the Directors of the Royal readily agreed to the suspension of the Fair so that the extensive building, especially the Coliseum and its two fine annexes, with administration offices, might be turned over to the Department of Defence in connection with the great war effort.

THE TORONTO HARBOUR COMMISSIONERS

The Toronto Harbour Commissioners, under a Special Act of the Parliament of Canada passed in 1911, were given control over the Port of Toronto. They commenced active operations in 1914, and the Harbour, at that time inadequate and relatively inaccessible, has been transformed by the Commissioners, in co-operation with the City Council and Dominion Government, into one of the most up-to-date on the Great Lakes. It can accommodate the largest vessels passing through the Welland Ship Canal and in cargo tonnage it now rates among the highest of Canadian Lake and Sea Ports.

Besides deepening the Harbour and constructing approximately nine miles of modern dockage, two large waterfront industrial areas have been created almost entirely out of non-revenue producing marsh lands and lands covered by water. These areas are served by wide paved streets, hydro-electric power at cost and by Canada's two transcontinental railway lines, the Canadian National and Canadian Pacific Railways, which connect with the Harbour front by means of approximately 30 miles of terminal tracks owned or controlled by the Commissioners. There is perfect co-ordination of rail, water and highway transportation.

In addition to the improvements effected in navigation, commercial and industrial facilities, the development plans included the reclamation of park and recreational areas of which Sunnyside Beach, near the western entrance to the City, has become Toronto's lakeshore playground. Here are found amusement devices, games, rides, swimming, dancing, refreshments, etc. On the beach proper is located a bathing pavilion with locker accommodation for 7,700 bathers; adjoining this is a swimming pool 300 feet long by 75 feet wide, with a capacity of 750,000 gallons.

Extending easterly from the Humber River to Leslie Street, a distance of approximately 7 miles, is the cross-town waterfront highway, with, for the most part, a minimum pavement width of 50 feet. The foresight in constructing this fast traffic artery, made possible by the waterfront development, is evidenced by the many thousands of motorists using it daily.

The area of lands sold, leased or occupied is now in excess of 530 acres, on which are located varied establishments with investments of approximately $40,000,000.00 in land, buildings and equipment. In addition, the Commissioners have leased to the Department of National Defence for the duration of the war, at a nominal rental, approximately 40 acres of land upon which is now located Equipment Depot No. 1 of the Commonwealth Air Training Scheme. About 360 acres are still available for lease or sale.

In order to finance the development works the Commissioners were authorized to borrow money by the issue of bonds, guaranteed as to principal and interest by the City. Over the period of years the position of the Commissioners has become more and more favourable. In 1942 the taxes derived by the City from occupied waterfront properties reclaimed and developed since the inception of the scheme in 1912, and from the comparatively small amount of lands existing and revenue producing at that time, were in excess of the amount the City was called upon to pay in 1942 under its guarantee by more than $330,000.00, as will be seen from the following statement:

General, School and Business Taxes received by the City from occupied Harbour Properties in 1942 (approximately)			$ 794,450.00
Interest and debt retirement charges, 1942		$1,166,558.96

Taxes so received by City exceeded payment under guarantee by			$ 331,036.40
Assessed value of occupied Harbour properties—1942 Assessment			$24,485,220.00

The following are the general and local improvement taxes paid by the Harbour Commissioners on Harbour lands:—

Year	General	Local Improvement	Total
1912 to 1934	$132,318	$1,221,237	$1,353,555
1935	16,202	183,654	199,856
1936	40,982	160,689	201,671
1937	28,566	158,556	187,122
1938	25,844	148,975	174,819
1939	27,081	128,954	156,035
1940	25,493	112,154	137,647
1941	13,177	48,773	61,950
1942	9,570	7,554	17,124
Total	$319,233	$2,170,546	$2,489,779

The citizens of Toronto have benefited greatly by the tremendous increase during recent years of waterborne traffic into and out of the City, resulting from the improved Harbour facilities. The following table sets forth comparative tonnages for the years mentioned:

Year	Tons
1925	476,950
1930	1,292,864
1935	3,020,130
1940	4,762,292
1941	4,166,951
1942	3,692,017

The oil and coal industries furnish a concrete example of the benefits arising to the citizens from the Harbour Development. Many concerns engaged in these lines of business have located on Harbour property, using extensive dockage space for the handling and storage of their commodities brought in during the navigation season. In connection with coal and coke, the facilities afforded have served to guarantee a winter's supply of fuel for use in the City regardless of conditions that might develop elsewhere during the winter months, and have also served to reduce the cost of these commodities to the consumer. Dealers are now able to purchase substantial supplies at low summer rates and these can be economically carried by water transport, cheaply unloaded directly from vessel to storage and used as needed.

The following table shows the increase in oil, coal and coke tonnage during recent years, and indicates the advantage taken by these two industries of the Harbour Development:

Year	Petroleum Products Tons	Coal & Coke Tons
1925	98,962	150,256
1930	449,219	225,992
1935	705,079	1,565,264

1940	1,365,722	2,224,881
1941	1,361,047	1,886,068
1942	1,199,514	1,986,542

The general taxes received by the City from industries located on lands created by the Harbour Development, the benefits arising from the increased waterborne trade of the Harbour and the impetus given thereby to the commerce of the City, apart from the saving to the citizens by reason of low cost transportation, are tangible results of the development. These, as a whole, cannot be rated in dollars and cents; but they are nevertheless of incalculable value to the City at large.

The two municipal airports, one a combined airport and seaplane base on Toronto Island and the other an all-weather airport at Malton, are administered by the Harbour Commissioners for and at the expense of the City.

The Island Airport, officially named by the City Council "Port George VI, Toronto Island Airport" has been mainly reclaimed from the inner harbour and lake. It is an "all-way" field comprising 177 acres, practically all sodded. The Airport has three flightways 3,000 feet long and 500 feet wide, all of which have been lighted; two have a paved runway 150 feet wide for their full length. The Airport is equipped with an Administration Building, lighting system, hangar, seaplane ramp, low dock and passenger float.

In 1940 permission was granted to the Royal Norwegian Government to use the Airport as a training centre for its Air Force.

At Malton, 1,444 acres were acquired for airport and zoning purposes, the objective being to use the zone-controlled areas for industrial development in connection with the manufacture of aircraft, subject to the regulations of the Department of Transport as to height of structures, etc. The National Steel Car Corporation Limited purchased some 108 acres, on which a large aircraft plant has been established. Another aircraft plant was established by Canadian Associated Aircraft Limited on a 15-acre site pruchased by this company. These plants are now operated by Victory Aircraft Limited. Trans-Canada Air Lines have leased 2½ acres adjoining the landing field and have erected a hangar and workshop.

Provision has been made at this Airport for flightways covering eight points of the compass, 1,000 feet in width and 9,000 feet long with permissible paved runways 5,000 feet in length and upwards. Up to the present three runways have been paved for lengths of 4,600 feet, 4,000 feet and 3,900 feet, respectively, each with a width of 150 feet. The Airport is equipped with an Administration Building, lighting system, meteorological offices, radio, etc. The Dominion Government holds under lease from the City the Airport proper (containing approximately 693 acres) and certain additional lands and operates the Airport. In connection with the Commonwealth Air Training Scheme, two training schools have been established by the Dominion Government at the Airport.

Air service between Toronto and principal Canadian and American cities is provided by regular scheduled flights by Trans-Canada Air Lines and American Air Lines to and from this Airport.

The Malton Airport has been officially named "Bishop Field, Toronto Airport, Malton," by the City Council in honour and recognition of the war-time service of Air Marshal William A. Bishop, V.C.

TORONTO TRANSPORTATION COMMISSION

The Toronto Transportation Commission was incorporated by an Act of the Ontario Legislature assented to June 4th, 1920. The Act of Incorporation is 10-11 Geo. V, 1920, Chap. 144, which may be briefly summarized as follows:

(1) The Commission consists of three members, appointed by the City Council to serve for three years, and to be paid such salary or other remunerations as may be fixed by Council.

(2) No member of the City Council is eligible for appointment as a member of the Commission.

(3) The Commission is entrusted with the control, maintenance, operation and management of:

(a) The Toronto Railway Company upon its acquisition by the City.

(b) The Civic Lines.

(c) Any other street railways that the City may from time to time acquire.

(4) The City may at any time entrust to the Commission the construction, control, maintenance, operation and management of lines of motor buses, or subways, or of tubes, or of any method of underground or local overhead transportation (This was done by By-law No. 8564.)

(5) To consider generally all matters relating to local transportation in the City of Toronto.

(6) To construct, control, maintain, operate and manage new lines of street railway.

(8) To requisition the City for money necessary to carry out its powers and duties. But nothing contained in the Act of Incorporation shall divest the Council of its authority with reference to providing money for such purposes.

(9) The Commission to furnish the City annually an Operating and Financial Statement, and keep its books at all times open for inspection by the Audit Department of the City.

The fares chargeable by the Commission are as follows:

Fares for Adults:

Four tickets for 25 cents; cash fare, 10 cents.

Toronto Transportation Commission

Fares for Children:

(a) Infants "in-arms", free. Children, not over 53½ inches in height: Cash, three cents; ten tickets for 25 cents.

(b) School Children's tickets: School Children's tickets are sold at the rate of seven for 25 cents, and are for the use of all school children under 16 years of age. The tickets are good only going to and from school, between the hours of 8 a.m. and 4.30 p.m., and are not valid on Saturdays, Sundays or on other days when schools are closed.

Free transportation privileges on the street cars are provided to the members of the Amputations Association of the Great War and to blind people in Toronto receiving passes through the Canadian National Institute for the Blind.

Free transfers are issued between all street cars within the City limits and between street cars and "feeder" buses within the City limits.

To protect the City's huge investment and its rights to control public transportation in its streets, the City authorized the Commission's acquirement of control of the principal motor coach routes radiating from the City and of motor coach sight-seeing services in the City. These services and other special motor coach and motor launch services are operated by the Commission under the name of Gray Coach Lines, Limited. With its routes extending from the United States border at Niagara Falls and Buffalo to Toronto and thence to Muskoka Lakes, North Bay and other northern Ontario resorts, Gray Coach Lines' motor coach services have made Toronto the hub of highway travel and have developed a profitable tourist business for Toronto. Complete information in reference to the services of Gray Coach Lines and connecting motor coach services to all points in Canada and the United States is available at Toronto Bus Terminal, 602 Bay Street, or by telephoning ADelaide 4221. By order of the Dominion Transit Controller some of Gray Coach Lines' services are curtailed or discontinued for the duration of the war.

Several municipalities adjacent to Toronto have arranged to have their local public transportation services managed by the Toronto Transportation Commission. This arrangement is advantageous to these municipalities and does not impose any financial responsibility on Toronto or on the Commission. These include street railway services in York Township, Weston, and the municipalities between Toronto and Richmond Hill on north Yonge Street; and bus services in York Township, Forest Hill Village, Leaside and East York Township.

The Toronto Island Ferries, now owned by the City of Toronto, have been managed by the Transportation Commission since February, 1927. Passenger and freight service is supplied by a fleet of ferry boats and freight craft between the mainland and the three Islands—Centre Island, Hanlan's Point and Ward's Island. The one-way trip to any of these points is made in approximately fifteen minutes.

The ferry service is managed by the Commission under an agreement with the City. The finances of this service are entirely separate from those of the other service managed by the Commission under its Act of Incorporation.

The rates of fare are the same on the ferries as on the City street car system, the same tickets being good on either service, but no transfer tickets are issued between the ferries and the street cars.

This is the twenty-third year of the Commission's operation of the various transportation services. During the preceding twenty-two years, approximately 6 billions of passengers have travelled on the street cars, buses, motor coaches, ferries and motor launches operated by the Commission.

The Commission operates 946 electric street cars and 72 electric service cars. The street cars travel a distance of approximately 30,000,000 miles in services during a year. The 359 buses and motor coaches travel 10,713,000 miles yearly. The fleet of five ferry boats carry nearly 2,400,000 passengers during the Summer. Approximately 3,800 people are regularly employed by the Commission.

The Commissioners are as follows:

Wm. C. McBrien, Chairman.

Wm. Croft, Vice-Chairman.

W. G. Russell, Commissioner.

H. C. Patten, General Manager.

C. A. Ward, Secretary and Public Relations Executive.

CITY PLANNING BOARD

On June 1st, 1942, a By-law (No. 15761) was enacted by the Council of the City of Toronto to provide for the establishment of a City Planning Board and to define its duties and powers.

The City Planning Board consists of seven members appointed by the City Council—one, annually, from the members of Council and the remainder for a period of three years. In order to have continuity the original appointments were made two for one year, two for two years and two for three years.

In addition the Government of the Province of Ontario is invited to appoint two of its officers to assist the Board and act as liaison between it, the Province and the municipalities adjacent to Toronto. These appointments have been made.

The City Planning Board is advisory to the City Council and its powers and duties are as follows:—

> To consider, to prepare proposals and plans and to advise the Council on matters connected with the use and development of land in and adjacent to the City over which the City may exercise control, as provided by the Planning and Development Act; so as to provide for the well being of the inhabitants and economic advantage to the citizens and community at large.

To determine what matters shall be studied and when any plan meets approval to present it to the Council.

To undertake, with or without the assistance of the Departments of the Corporation the technical work required for planning.

To acquaint the citizens with the merits of projects, and to consult when desirable, citizens of all interests.

The Board submits an annual report to the City Council and presents an estimate of its expenditures for the forthcoming year.

The Board has no power to commit the City to any expenditure and can only expend monies appropriated to it in the current year.

During its seven months' activity in 1942 the Board has considered the problem as a whole and obtained information through consultations with heads of Civic Departments and Commissions, with the Reeves and Officers of adjacent municipalities and with the Committee on Reconstruction appointed by the Dominion Cabinet, and many others.

In order to facilitate its studies, the Board has appointed an Advisory Technical Committee consisting of seven members technically experienced in various aspects of City Planning. A Civic Officials Committee, consisting of heads of certain city departments and commissions has been set up for the purpose of making their knowledge of city problems and administration available to the Board.

Besides studying the problem as a whole, the Board has been asked to advise on a number of specific projects; all of these have received careful consideration and a number of reports have been already made. Other larger matters are still under consideration.

The Board meets on Monday afternoons alternate with the meetings of the City Council—and oftener, when necessary. There were nineteen meetings in the seven months period of 1942.

The Advisory Technical Committee held twenty meetings since its appointment in September.

TORONTO INDUSTRIAL COMMISSION

The Toronto Industrial Commission was incorporated by Letters Patent under the Ontario Companies' Act on 28th of December, 1928, and began active operations on the 13th of March, 1929. The Commission's objectives are to secure industries for, and aid industries in, the City of Toronto and surrounding territory and to give publicity to the advantages of the Toronto area for business and manufacturing purposes.

It maintains comprehensive data concerning available industrial properties, accepts no commissions or fees, preserves confidential relations with its correspondents, invites suggestions as to names of companies which might advantageously locate in the Toronto area, and has a staff of qualified engineers in industrial, economic and statistical research.

During 1942 the Commission co-operated in the establishment of twelve industrial developments in the Toronto area. Eighteen existing Toronto industries in 1942 were assisted in securing larger or more suitable manufacturing space, new lines to manufacture and given data on questions of obscure sources of materials, taxation and numerous other subjects.

Since the Commission began operations fourteen years ago it has co-operated with a total of 208 industrial companies which have established in Toronto and suburbs. They have invested $18,539,000 in plant and equipment, are employing 12,188 people, and are occupying more than 3,539,400 square feet of floor space. The floor area used by all these manufacturing operations is equivalent to a single plant 100 feet wide and more than six and one-half miles long.

In addition to the "direct" employment by the new industries, their operations have resulted in substantial additional employment in other Toronto concerns supplying a wide variety of production materials and services to the new companies and their employees. It has been conservatively estimated that this "indirect" employment represents over 12,000 additional persons.

The employment provided is equal to the total industrial employment in many of Canada's smaller cities. Their coming has added "another city" to Toronto.

These new companies paid taxes of $47,585 in the City of Toronto in 1942 and purchased electric power and lights to the value of $197,717.

Seventy per cent. of the employment went to Toronto citizens.

The Commission has also rendered important service to the Canadian Government in developing the special manufacture of munitions and other war materials. It is also developing special post war plans for new manufacturing and employment.

The Commission is the official Industrial Commission for the City of Toronto. Its Board of Directors is made up of representatives nominated by the City Council, the Board of Trade of the City of Toronto, the Toronto Branch of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, the Toronto Hydro-Electric System, the Toronto Transportation Commission, the Toronto Harbour Commissioners and the Canadian National Exhibition Association.

THE TORONTO HUMANE SOCIETY

The Toronto Humane Society was incorporated in the year 1887 and from that date has continuously carried on its aims and objects, namely, the protection of animals and birds from being cruelly treated.

Humane Education of children is one of the most vital departments of the Society's work, as it is a well-known fact that a child who is taught kindness to animals will not go far wrong in his behaviour towards his fellow-men.

The Headquarters of the Society is situated at 11 St. Albans Street. It operates the City Pound and performs the duties of Dog Catching for the City.

Its records for the year 1942 show that its motorcars responded to 22,112 calls sent in by citizens. 3,595 emergency calls were responded to. 751 complaints were sent into the Society by citizens regarding cruelty to animals which were investigated.

Constant inspection is maintained over the conditions under which animals for human consumption are handled and killed. During 1942 this entailed the examination of 67,170 cattle, sheep, swine and poultry. The transportation of food animals and birds is frequently carried on with great cruelty. It is therefore the duty of the Society to keep constant watch on those engaged in this work. Thousands of pamphlets, giving advice, are distributed to drivers of cattle trucks and others engaged in the transportation of animals.

The Society gives a twenty-four hour service, 365 days of the year for the relief of suffering animals.

SOCIAL SERVICES OF TORONTO

Every community has its problems of social break-down. As the community grows the problems of indigence, dependency and illness grow with it. With the increasing complexity of modern city life, health and welfare services have become a recognized responsibility of civic government. Public assistance serves those persons described in legislation or order-in-council as in specific need, while private agencies attempt to meet those needs not recognized in legislation, and carry much of the responsibility for interpretation of need not yet widely understood. These private agencies are often the pioneers in social welfare.

Because of the pressure of events during the past few years there has been a marked trend toward greater co-ordination of both public and private effort in an endeavour to eliminate overlapping and make for more effective and economic service in the interests of people served. The first and simplest mode of co-operation was in the direction of eliminating overlapping, through a system of registration provided by the Social Service Index. Then followed the attempt to unite all voluntary agencies in a common appeal for the support of the public, through community chests or federations for community service. Of these, three were formed in Toronto: Federation for Community Service, Federation of Catholic Charities and the United Jewish Welfare Fund. Seventy important agencies are now included in these federations, but a number still continue their own programmes outside the federation group. Out of the federations there developed naturally the demand for co-operation in policy and action which led, in 1937, to the formation of a Welfare Council of Toronto and District. Within this Council any form of organized effort, whether public or private, is intended to have its place, and thus the Council can serve as a veritable parliament of agencies, constantly deliberating and acting in the interests of greater well-being, utilizing the best thought of the community and focusing its goodwill and its resources with the minimum of waste or friction.

A classified list of all the welfare services in Toronto with a brief statement of their purpose is available in the Directory of Welfare Resources issued by the Welfare Council. The co-ordinating agencies are as follows:

TORONTO AND THE TELEPHONE

The telephone needs of Toronto and the adjoining communities are served by The Bell Telephone Company of Canada.

The Bell Telephone Company of Canada was incorporated in 1880 and, in Toronto, it absorbed the Toronto Telephone Despatch Company, which had been serving Toronto citizens since 1879.

About 247,000 telephones are in use in the Toronto exchange area and some 10,000 in the City's suburbs. Roughly one-sixth of the telephones in service in the Dominion of Canada are in Greater Toronto and the City has more telephones, per hundred inhabitants, than any other city in the British Empire.

Torontonians place about 2,000,000 local calls—calls within Toronto—daily. Over 950 long distance circuits terminate at Toronto's long distance centre, largest in Canada, and on an average day Torontonians make about 15,000 long distance calls. This figure takes in only calls which originate in Toronto. It is estimated that about three times that number—incoming, outgoing and through calls—are cleared daily by the Toronto long distance centre.

There are about 3,000 Bell Telephone employees in Toronto. Almost a million people visit the company's business offices in Toronto every Toronto and the Telephone—continued year and over 400,000 transactions between the company and its subscribers are handled by telephone.

War developments have resulted in the Telephone Company being confronted with an unprecedented increase in the volume of requests for service on the one hand, and, on the other, a serious shortage of essential materials. Under the regulations issued by the Wartime Prices and Trade Board, Canadian Telephone Systems are ordered and required to take such steps as in their judgment, may be necessary to conserve any and all spare telephone plant and facilities, in order to be able to furnish necessary telephone service to those agencies to whom efficient communication service is essential to the successful prosecution of the War.

Executive officers of The Bell Telephone Company of Canada include C. F. Sise, President; P. A. McFarlane, J. H. Brace, F. Johnson, Vice-Presidents; H. G. Young, General Manager, Western Area, and Frank H. Rowe, Toronto Manager.

THE CANADIAN RED CROSS SOCIETY

International Red Cross Movement.

The Red Cross movement rests upon international treaties and conventions, the first of which was signed at Geneva in 1863. The underlying idea of the movement was the securing of immunity from attack for all persons engaged in relief of the sick and wounded in battle. The scope of the movement has been gradually extended so that now the Red Cross is recognized as a symbol of humanitarian action of many kinds in all parts of the world, and its protection is extended both to the departments of the armed forces charged with the care of the sick, wounded, and prisoners of war in the Navy, Army and Air Force, and also to the voluntary workers who are auxiliary to these forces. Under the Covenant of the League of Nations, of which Canada is a signatory, the services of the Red Cross were extended to include "the promotion of health, the prevention of disease, and the mitigation of suffering both in peace and war."

Canadian Red Cross Society

The Canadian Red Cross Society holds its Charter under the Act of Incorporation passed by the Parliament of Canada in 1909, which Charter was amended by the Dominion Parliament in 1919 to cover the enlarged scope of its work as defined in the Covenant of the League of Nations.

The Central Council, which is the governing agent of the Society, is a representative body composed of two members elected by each Provincial Division, and of fifteen "members-at-large", elected by the eighteen Provincial representatives. Any person may become a member of the Society by paying an annual subscription of $1 to a Local Branch.

The Canadian Red Cross Society at the end of 1942 was organized under nine Provincial Divisions and more than 2,600 local Branches to which are attached some 10,000 auxiliary groups. In the Toronto Branch there are over 900 working groups containing a membership of 34,000 women. The Society is served by a mighty army of volunteer workers with a small force of salaried officials by whom the voluntary service of the Society is co-ordinated.

Organization

Since the war began the Canadian Red Cross up to the end of 1942, has made three appeals to the people of Canada— one in November, 1939, another in September, 1940, and the third in May, 1942—which have raised a joint total of approximately $26,000,000 to provide free gifts for members of the armed forces, prisoners-of-
